FAJAR SALAAT:

In the name of Allah, may Allah's mercy and blessings be upon you, His servant. I begin with the pure, sacred, and blessed name of Allah — the Most Merciful, the Most Compassionate.

Allah is the One besides whom there is no god. He knows the unseen and the seen. He is the Most Merciful, the Most Compassionate. He is the King, the Most Pure, the Source of Peace, the Giver of Safety, the Protector, the Almighty, the Most Powerful, the Most Great. Glory is to Allah — far above having any partners.

He is Allah, the Creator, the Maker, the Designer. To Him belong the most beautiful names. Everything in the heavens and the earth praises Him. He is the All-Mighty, the All-Wise.

Allah is One. He does not give birth, nor was He born. And nothing is equal to Him.

Allah is the Ever-Living, the Self-Sustaining. He never sleeps or becomes tired. Everything in the heavens and the earth belongs to Him. No one can speak for others before Him without His permission. His knowledge covers everything, and no one can gain knowledge except what He allows. Protecting the heavens and the earth does not tire Him. He is the Most High, the Most Great.

All praise belongs to Allah. Glory is to Allah. All praise belongs to Allah. There is no god except Allah. Allah is the Greatest. There is no power or strength except with Allah, the Most High, the Most Great.

We believe in Allah, and in what was sent down to us, and what was sent down to Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob, and their children, and what was given to Moses and Jesus, and all prophets from their Lord. We make no difference between any of them, and we submit to Allah alone.

I testify that there is no god except Allah, alone, with no partners. And I testify that Muhammad is His servant and His messenger.

All praise is for Allah, Lord of all the worlds.

O Allah, I answer Your call. I answer Your call. You have no partner. I answer Your call. All praise and blessings belong to You.

My beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, on this Thursday, 9 February 2022, during the Fajr prayer, I turned to You with my whole heart, mind, awareness, and understanding — to bow before You, to ask for Your help, to thank You, to honor You, to worship You, and to seek forgiveness for my sins.

My beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, I have come into Your protection, and I want to remain in Your protection — from the rejected enemy and his followers, whether they are from humans or from unseen beings.

O Lord of all the worlds, I have turned my face toward the Sacred Mosque in Makkah. I have focused my attention on You and Your guidance. You have no partner, no family ties, no equal. You are the only true Master. I am not among those who associate partners with You.

I begin these words with the sacred and blessed name of Allah, the Most Merciful, the Most Compassionate — because this is my faith and my belief: that You alone are the Creator, the Owner, and the true inheritor of the universe.

You are the Greatest, the Best Creator, the Best Owner, the Most High, the Most Kind, the Most Just.

My beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, You are the highest and the greatest. You are the most perfect and the most worthy of praise. You are the most loving and caring Lord. You are the most loving and caring Lord.

You are pure, sacred, and blessed. You are the Most Merciful, and all praise belongs to You. You placed great blessings in Your name.

You are my Lord, and the Lord of my ancestors. You are the Lord of all nations and all worlds. Your greatness exists in every direction — in the heavens, the earth, and the entire universe.

O Lord, You are pure and free from every false thing people associate with You. You are pure and free from every relationship people wrongly claim for You. You are pure and free from all the fake stories and lies that people invent about You.

Peace and honor be upon Your messengers. You are the Lord of all worlds. You created every living thing, and You provide food and provision for every living being.

You taught humans how to speak. You created languages and gave them meaning. You are the best Creator and the true Owner.

O my beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, I give witness to Your oneness.

O my beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, I am deeply grateful to You. Thank You for giving me this day and extending my life to see it.

Whatever good things, blessings, skills, knowledge, wisdom, provision, healing, and strength of body and soul You have kept for me — please grant them to me. Because I depend on You for every good thing, and I am in need of Your mercy and kindness.

I am hopeful and satisfied with the good You have written for me.

O Lord, I thank You for making me a citizen of this land, giving me a nation, an identity, and a language.

I thank You for teaching me to read and understand Your books, and for giving me the ability and opportunity to act upon them. Please increase this blessing in my life.

O my Lord, I ask You to open my heart and mind for more knowledge, wisdom, and understanding. Surely, You give the best knowledge, and You increase it for whoever You choose.

O Lord of all the worlds, expand my heart and chest for more knowledge — especially the knowledge of wisdom, the Book, and deep understanding.

You are the One who gives healing. You are the One who provides all means and causes of good. I ask You to grant me the good You have saved for me. I rely on You alone.

Surely, You are the best Lord, the best Creator, the best Provider, and the best Owner.

My beloved Allah, most merciful Lord, I am endlessly grateful to You for guiding me, for taking me out of darkness and bringing me into light.

Glory is to You, the true Owner. I ask You to increase this light of knowledge, skill, and action, and turn every area of my life that still has darkness into light.

You are pure. Darkness cannot cover You. You are the One who brings Your servants from denial into guidance, and from darkness into light.

Lord of all the worlds, I ask You to strengthen my mind, my awareness, my eyes, my ears, my tongue, my hands, my feet, my body, my bones, and all parts of me. Give them firmness, power, strength, and keep them active.

You are the One who grants healing, safety, strong faith, and the means that lead to goodness.

My beloved Allah, most merciful Lord, I testify to Your greatness. I testify that every living being in the heavens and the earth — their life and death — is under Your power alone. My moments of life and death are also fully in Your control.

The earth, the skies, the galaxies, the stars, the planets, the sun, the moon, the day, the night, the morning, the evening, the noon, the afternoon, Fajr, dawn, morning and sunset — all are in Your control.

Honor and misguidance, guidance and loss, paradise and hell, thunder and lightning, clouds and rain, storms and floods, earthquakes and disasters, seas and horizons, nations and their generations, angels and spirits, jinn and humans, armies and forces, traffic and movement, and all kinds of technology — land, sea, air, fire, weapons, or any form of technology — all are under Your power.

I testify that all nations, all countries, all armies, all systems, all movement, all time — days, weeks, months, years, centuries, eras and ages — every kind of creation and every kind of generation, everything that walks, flies, swims or moves — all of it is in Your control.

I am deeply grateful to You, because You created everything, and You alone are the true Master of the Day of Judgment.

My beloved Allah, most merciful Lord, I testify that all of this exists by Your command and Your power, because You are the One who created all things.

You are the Owner and Provider of everything. My beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, I ask You to unite me, my children, and all obedient and loyal servants in the heavens and the earth — the willing ones, the worshippers, and those who bow before You.

Unite us upon the principles and the way of life that You have approved and placed in the heavens and the earth.

You are the best Guardian and the best Protector.

My beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, I testify that all provision for every creation is in Your control, and You alone grant voices and languages to all beings.

All praise and glory belong to You alone. You are the Most Praised and the Most Glorious. You are the best Lord of all worlds. You create and sustain every world, every life, and every generation.

You are extremely kind and full of mercy. My beloved Allah, my Lord, You are the Master of the Day of Judgment.

I call upon You, and I seek Your support. Guide me on the paths of guidance — the blessed paths, the paths of goodness, knowledge, wisdom, firmness, and strength.

O Lord of all the worlds, never let me walk on a path that makes You angry, that displeases You, or that leads me away from You. I do not want to do any work that makes You angry or causes me to go away from You.

Keep me in Your protection, so I can continue thanking You for the favors and blessings You granted to me, my parents, and my children.

Grant me and my children — and all people in the universe — the blessings You have kept for us. Surely, You give the best blessings, favors, and mercy to Your servants.

I have come into Your protection, and I want to stay in Your protection.

You alone are the Lord of all people. You alone are the Owner of all people. You alone are the God of all people in the universe.

Lord of all the worlds, I seek Your protection, and I want to stay in Your protection — from people who mislead others, cheat, deceive, or place hatred and evil thoughts unjustly in hearts.

I seek Your protection from those who spread anger, jealousy, and false hatred among people.

O my Merciful Lord, I take refuge in You from the harm of darkness when it falls, and from those who create obstacles for people trying to walk on Your path and follow Your guidance.

I seek refuge in You from the harm of envy when someone becomes envious of me — for the blessings You gave me, in my faith, life, body, mind, wealth, family, knowledge, and skills.

My beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, You know my enemies better than I do.

O Lord, I ask You to let me benefit from the company of my sincere companions, and let them benefit from my company as well — whether the benefit is spiritual, financial, physical, mental, social, economic, language-related, or any kind of good benefit.

All good benefit, peace of heart, comfort of soul, calmness, stability, happiness, satisfaction, and the coolness of the eyes (inner peace and relief) are with You alone, and fully under Your power.

You provide for anyone You choose. My beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, I ask You to unite me, my children, and all Your loyal, obedient servants — the believers, worshippers, and willing helpers — upon the true principles of life and the natural system You placed between the heavens and the earth.

My beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, I ask You — wherever You take me, take me with truth. And wherever You remove me from, remove me with truth. And help me with Your power and support, because You are the best Helper and the best Supporter.

O Lord of all the worlds, I ask You to grant peace, comfort, calmness, and stability to our hearts. Give coolness, peace, and comfort to our eyes and hearts through our families — and for those who have spouses and children, grant them peace through their families as well.

Make us companions of truthful and righteous people. Make us leaders and sources of goodness for others, because You are in control of all things, above all creation.

O Allah, increase the ranks and honor of Adam and Eve, peace be upon them. Increase the honor and ranks of all Your chosen and beloved messengers and prophets, peace be upon them — the righteous men and righteous women, whether they are in this world now or have left this world before. Surely, You grant the highest ranks to whom You choose.

My beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, I ask You to keep all of us safe and protected from sudden harm, sudden trials, the harm of thunder and lightning, storms, earthquakes, floods, winds, diseases, illnesses, misguidance, harmful inventions, and all forms of evil — from humans or unseen beings — and from hypocrites and their deception.

Keep all of us in Your protection, because Your protection is the best protection — the protection of knowledge, wisdom, peace, safety, calmness, and light.

My beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, I testify that Your protection is the protection of light and guidance.

O Lord of all the worlds, protect all of us from the harm of hypocritical friends and from their deception and trials.

Keep all of us in Your protection from the harm of hypocritical relatives — from their hypocrisy and from any hostility they carry in their hearts.

Whether the hostility is spiritual, physical, mental, financial, social, economic, language-based, group-based, or any kind — You know what is hidden in their hearts. I do not know what is in anyone's heart, but You know what is in every heart. You are the Most Gentle, the Most Aware, the All-Knowing, the All-Hearing, the All-Seeing, the Self-Sufficient, and the Most Praised.

Your greatness, mercy, blessings, wisdom, favor, love, and beauty are unmatched — they always were, and they always will be.

You are the King of all kings. You grant power and rule to whom You choose, and You take it away from whom You choose. You give honor to whom You choose, and You allow hardship for whom You choose.

All goodness, all blessings, all mercy, all wisdom, and all favor are in Your hands. These are Your treasures. You spend them as You wish, when You wish, where You wish, how You wish, and as much as You wish — without limit.

I testify that Your treasures never decrease. You are Self-Sufficient, Most Praised, Most Gentle, All-Hearing, All-Seeing. You control reward and accountability. You control mercy and justice. You bring the day out of the night, and the night out of the day. You bring the living out of the dead, and the dead out of the living. You provide for anyone without measure.

You grant knowledge without limit to whom You choose. You grant provision without limit to whom You choose. You grant healing to whom You choose.

You are fully free in Your will. No one in the universe — in the heavens, the earth, or between them — is equal to Your power, Your strength, or Your perfection. There is no one like You. You alone are the Creator and Owner of the universe.

You are the One who placed the universe, and You are present in every part of the universe with Your knowledge and signs.

Lord of all the worlds, I testify that every living being completes every moment of its life in the light You provide.

You are the One who can keep anything in this world if You wish — any creation, any nation, any country, any weather, any disease, any season, any invention, any illness — and You can remove anything if You wish. In its place, You can bring new creation, new nations, new countries, new seasons, new weather, new inventions, new people, and new changes. This is the work of Your command and authority. For You, it is extremely easy.

If You wish, You can guide all people in the world — bring them together and grant them strong faith, strong belief, justice, unity, love, peace, and understanding.

And if You wish, You can leave people on their own mistakes, their sins, their neglect, their injustice, their envy, their anger, their distractions, their ignorance, and their carelessness.

Lord of all the worlds, this is the work of Your will and power. For You, it is very easy. Your only command is to give an order — and it happens immediately. When You command something, it simply happens.

O Lord of all the worlds, O Judge of all judges, O Most Honorable, O Most Generous, I testify that Your command is fulfilled in less than a blink of an eye.

You are the Lord of greatness, power, and authority — and even far above that. You are the best Lord.

I am fully satisfied with You. My heart is calm because of You.

I am grateful that You are my Lord.

I have complete peace and confidence in Your mercy, Your wisdom, Your justice, and Your perfect power.

O Lord, You are the Owner of all decisions. No one can stop what You choose. No one can match Your power. There is no one like You.

You are the Creator and Owner of the universe, and I am content and satisfied under Your command.

I am satisfied and at peace that You are my Lord, my Master, my Creator, and my Provider. You are my best Guide, my best Protector, and the One who removes my difficulties.

Lord of all the worlds, I believe in You, I know You, and I turn to You. I ask You to unite me, my children, and all Your loyal and obedient servants — the workers, the volunteers, the worshipping men and worshipping women — wherever they live: in my home, my neighborhood, my town, my city, my country, and all nations across the world.

Unite all of us upon the best natural principles, the best commands, and the best way of life that You taught us through Your noble messengers and chosen prophets.

My beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, You alone grant wisdom, strength, stability, guidance, and ability. I ask You to give us more understanding, firmness, courage, patience, and the ability to walk on the path shown by Your prophets and messengers.

I am extremely grateful that You made life easier for the people of today by giving knowledge, skill, and modern technology.

Thank You for granting deep knowledge and advanced technology to today's researchers, teachers, thinkers, doctors, engineers, professors, scientists, scholars, and all professionals who serve society. Through this high information technology, You made life very easy for us, and You created many means of healing and safety for countless illnesses. Thank You so much.

I thank You for not placing upon us the burdens You placed upon earlier people. I ask You never to place on us a burden that we do not have the strength to carry or endure.

I thank You for making my present far better than my past.

My beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, I ask You to make my future even better than my present — because You are the Lord of every moment and every age. You control every moment and every era. You test nations and individuals, and You also remove them from tests. And Your tests are always the best and most meaningful.

My beloved Allah, Most Merciful Lord, I ask You to give us the knowledge that has not yet reached us, so that we may truly know You, recognize Your chosen servants, and follow the right path.

On the Day of Judgment, do not let us be ashamed or regretful. Instead, raise us with the sincere, loyal worshippers — the willing servants who follow You with true faith, justice, unity, love, and peace.

Lord of all the worlds, all my prayers, praise, honor, respect, and devotion are only for You — through Your pure, blessed, and glorious name, Allah, the Most Merciful, the Most Compassionate.

I ask You to accept it, hear it, and turn Your attention toward it — because You are the One who sees, hears, knows, and protects honor with perfect greatness.

Glory is to You, O Allah, and all praise is Yours. Blessed is Your name. Most High is Your greatness. There is no god except You.

O Allah, Lord of all the worlds, You are the Creator and the true Owner. Your mercy, blessings, love, kindness, wisdom, favor, and greatness are beyond measure and without equal.

You are the Greatest, the Most Pure, the Most Sacred, the Most Kind, the Most Powerful, the Most Caring, the All-Generous, the All-Capable, the All-Protecting. You are the Most High, the Most Great, the Most Noble.

Your treasures never decrease. Your mercy never weakens. Your power never becomes less. You know our needs even before we ask, and You grant them. For this, I am endlessly grateful for Your mercy, Your care, Your love, Your attention, Your kindness, and Your countless favors — both seen and unseen.

You are above the earth, above the heavens, above the universe, above all kings and all power — You are the King of all kings, the Lord of all nations, the Lord of all worlds, the Lord of every moment and every age.

Peace be upon Your messengers. Raise the ranks of all Your prophets and all sincere worshipping men and sincere worshipping women — those who are in this world now and those who have left this world before. Surely, You grant the highest ranks to whom You choose.

O Allah, peace, safety, mercy, blessings, love, wisdom, and comfort are from You alone. Send them down upon me, my children, my family, my companions, my community, my city, my country, and all people across the universe — and send them down in the best and most perfect way, just as You grant them to Your chosen and beloved servants.

Surely, You are the One who gives the best knowledge of the Book and wisdom, in every moment, in every age, in every century, in every place. You alone open the hearts and minds for knowledge and wisdom. You alone guide nations and individuals. You alone remove trials and grant peace.

And I testify that in every prayer, every praise, every call, every hope, every thanks, every thought, every step, every breath — I worship only You, I call only You, I rely only on You. And You always hear my call.

You are present in every moment, every age, every century, and every place to give the knowledge of the Book and wisdom. You are close to every city and every person.

Glory is to Allah. O Allah, You are pure. You hear all calls for peace. You hear every prayer. You hear every request. You are the Most Merciful of all who show mercy. You are the Best Provider. You are the Best Creator. You are the Guardian in this world and the next. You are full of glory, honor, and greatness.

My beloved Allah — the One who controls the Kingdom and all power — You are pure and far above any partner, far above weakness, far above injustice.

Glory is to the Ever-Living King — Allah, who never sleeps and never dies. He never sleeps, He never dies. He does not age, He does not weaken. He does not rest, and nothing can overpower Him.

You are our Lord, the Lord of the angels, and the Lord of all spirits.

O Allah, save us from the fire. O Savior, O Protector, O One who grants safety, O One who rescues from harm — keep us safe, keep us safe, keep us safe.

O Allah — Most Merciful, Most Compassionate, Most Honorable, Most Kind — I ask You for Your mercy, Your protection, Your forgiveness, Your provision, Your guidance, Your wisdom, and Your support.
